   c. Successful completion of the general studies requirement;

Schedules are prepared after a careful analysis of course needs for each student admitted to the Evening, Weekend, and Online program. Therefore, all courses are not offered every term. With this approach, however, every student can expect to have courses available that will accommodate his/her plan.

4. Credits earned through the on-campus traditional undergraduate program, through any on-site Evening, Weekend, or Online location, and through Online/BlendEd delivery methods are interchangeable and recognized as credits towards Lakeland College graduation requirements.

5. Once a student is admitted to the Evening, Weekend, and Online program, the accepted degree plan is guaranteed to the student even if subsequent changes in the curriculum occur, provided the student has maintained continuous enrollment in the program. Continuous enrollment is defined as the completion of at least one three semester hour course in a three semester period. There is no maximum timeframe within which the degree must be completed provided a student maintains continuous enrollment.

The agreement is subject to revision and/or discontinuance that may occur as a result of curricular changes.
