

Over Loan Limit/Reaffirmation Agreement Instructions

Based on data provided by the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) and your grade level, the Department of Education has determined that you may have received a total amount of undergraduate student loans that exceeds the loan limits established for Federal loan programs.

You have lost eligibility for Federal student financial aid due to this inadvertent overborrowing. To get complete information about your loan(s) or contact information regarding your loan holder(s), you may visit your student aid account at www.studentaid.gov.

To regain eligibility for federal student financial aid, you may either:

1. Repay the excess loan amount now, in which case you should contact your loan holder for instructions and not complete the Reaffirmation Agreement; or
2. Agree to repay the excess according to the terms and conditions of your promissory note ("reaffirmation"), in which case you should review the Reaffirmation Agreement form, sign it, and return to Moraine Park to be forwarded to your loan holder.

Note: if the overborrowing was caused by more than one loan and the loans are held by different loan holders, a separate form will need to be submitted to each loan holder.

Sincerely,

Financial Aid
